

Head Start

Families enrolled in SNAP are eligible to apply to their local Head Start/Early Head Start Program.

Head Start is a federal program that promotes school readiness by providing free learning and development services for children under five from low-income families.

Early Head Start serves infants, toddlers, and pregnant women and their families who have incomes below the federal poverty level.

Here is more information about services offered by Head Start.

Head Start

How to apply for Head Start:

1. Find your local Head Start program here.
2. Contact the center.
3. Follow the center's instructions for applying.

More information about applying for Head Start is available here.

More information about Indiana's collaboration with Head Start is available here, and a list of Indiana Head Start locations is available here.